THE BRAZEN SERPENT.

BY REV. EDWARD D. GRIFFIN, D. D.

Jesus and his salvation were the substance of all the ancient shadows, the end of all the Mosaic rites, and the burden of every prophet's song. They were the favorite theme of the Old Testament and the New. They are the subject of the highest songs of the upper world. They bring the purest joy to hearts on earth broken for sin.

There are few types of happier influence to illustrate the gospel-remedy and the manner of its application, than the brazen serpent. When the Hebrews provoked God in the wilderness, he sent among them fiery serpents of a most deadly bite—none being able to defend themselves against the fell attack. What a scene of distress was here! Hundreds lying dead in the camp; hundreds more writhing in torture, and crying in vain for relief; every one trembling for

FIRST TELEVISION BROADCAST OF EASTER SERVICES

(By The Associated Press)

New York, March 24.—Easter services in a Catholic and a Protestant church were telecast today, the first religious services ever transmitted over television.

Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen of the Catholic University of America said in his sermon at mass: "This is the first religious television in the history of the world. Let therefore its first message be a tribute of thanks to God for giving the minds of our day the inspiration to unravel the secrets of the universe."

Dr. Henry McCrea Cavert, of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, telecast his Easter sermon. Both services and Easter parade scenes were carried over NBC's station W2XBS.
